Policy Development and Review

Ackerman Pierce Education have policies that are established by our senior leadership team based on advice from HR professionals, industry best practice and legal advice. We review our policies as needed to adapt to changes.

Our Processes for Managing Risk

To assess the risk of modern slavery, we use the following processes with our suppliers:

- o When engaging with suppliers, we ask for evidence of their processes and policies, including commitments around modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, human rights, and whistleblowing
- o We review the potential for risk at regular intervals, including the possibility of reauditing a supplier or conducting spot checks.

After due consideration, we have not identified any significant risks of modern slavery, forced labour, or human trafficking in our supply chain. However, we continue to be alert to the potential for problems.

Additionally, we have taken the following steps to minimise the possibility of any problems:

- o We reserve the right to conduct spot-checks of the businesses who supply us, to investigate any complaints.
- o We collaborate with our suppliers to improve standards and transparency across our supply chain.

Our staff are encouraged to bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.

Our Performance

We regularly monitor our risks in this area through the use of relevant key performance indicators, including:

- o Working in line with our Modern Slavery Policy and Modern Slavery Statement
- o The percentage of our clients who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements
- o The effectiveness of enforcement against suppliers who breach policies
- o Internal audits, re-audits, spot checks, and related due diligence
- o The level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff

We consider our indicators, in order to ensure that we do not put undue pressure on our suppliers that might increase the potential for risk.

Our Training

Our staff receive awareness-raising information around issues involving modern slavery and human trafficking, so that they can bring any concerns they have to the attention of Senior Management.

As part of this, our staff are encouraged to discuss any concerns that they have. Training is refreshed annually.
